Coni, October 6.

ON Monday last the King of Sardinia returned hither from Demont. At the same Time all the Troops, excepting two Regiments of Piemontese, one of Austrians, and a Detachment of Waraſdins, were withdrawn from the Valley of Stura, the French having quitted their Camp of Tournos by Reason of the Snow. By our last Advices from the County of Nice, the French and Spaniards are in no small Distress there, the Var being swell'd by the Rains to that Degree, that it has carried away their Bridges on that River, and by that Means cut off their Communication with Provence, from whence they drew the Subsistances for their Army. Should the bad Weather continue, they would be reduced to the greatest Streights, which they are apprehensive of, and in order to prevent it, we hear are actually embarking all the Troops they possibly can at Villa Franca, and sending them by Sea to Provence. The King of Sardinia will continue here some Days longer, in order to hear the Issue of the Blockade or Siege of Ventimiglia.

Dresden, October 18, N. S. The King and all the Court are at Hubertsburg, where they propose staying till December. The Fair at Leipzig ended last Saturday, and was by much the worst that ever was known. General Keith is arrived at Berlin; his Prussian Majesty has made him a General of Foot, and given him a Regiment of Infantry, as also a Salary of Fifteen thousand Crowns per Annum. It is said that he is to go and command in Prussia immediately.

Hague, Oct. 27, N. S. Lieutenant-General Huske is appointed to command in Gertrudenberg, and his Regiment, and Major-General Howard's, are put in the Garrison there; and he has the Inspection of that Garrison, as well as of that of Heusden, where the first Battalion of the Royals, and that of Wolfe, will be placed. The Town of Amsterdam have reported their Consent to the Office of Stadtholder in the Prince of Orange's Male Line, but their Proposal has not been admitted in the Assembly of Holland, and their Deputies are desired to procure fresh Instructions; and it is not doubted, but that they will, in the End, obtain such as will authorize them to conform entirely to the Proposition of the Nobles. Prince Frederick of Hesse Cassel, Marshal Bathiani, and several other General Officers, are arrived here within these few Days.

Dublin, October 12.

The Anniversary of his Majesty's Coronation falling upon Sunday the 11th Instant, the same was observed this Day, when the Great Guns were fired in his Majesty's Park the Phœnix, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green: At Noon there was a numerous Appearance of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction, to Compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant upon this Occaſion: In the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy: And at Night there was a Play given by his Excellency for the Entertainment of the Ladies, and a Ball at the Caſtle.

Dublin, October 12.

By a Letter received this Day from Corke we have an Account, That the 6th Inſtant the Hampſhire and Bridgewater Men of War brought into Kinſale the La Tourterelle, a ſmall Privateer belonging to Granville, of 14 Guns and 74 Men: That the next Day the Tyger and Tygreſs Privateers of Briſtol, ſent into Kinſale a large Martinico Ship laden with Sugar, &c. And that laſt Night the Tyger arrived at this Port with the Grand Bayone Privateer of Bilboa, 240 Men, 24 Guns, has done much Miſchief, reigned ſince the Commencement of the Spaniſh War, computed to have taken about 120 Sail of Engliſh Ships.
